

Jill Hawmiller

KEYNOTE SPEAKING & WORKSHOP TOPICS

Emotional Intelligence: The Key to Career and Life Success

Why is everyone talking about emotional intelligence lately? Jill leads audiences through an interactive discussion of emotional intelligence in our work and personal lives. She explores the competencies that have been researched and connected to personal and professional success.

Authentic Leadership

What makes a great leader? What kind of leader are you today, and what kind of leader would you like to be in the future? Jill leads this interactive session exploring your own personal leadership style and the skills necessary for your success in the future.

Leadership Hurdles Women Face

What are the primary leadership hurdles women face in the workplace, and what can be done to overcome them? Jill's interactive discussion explores these hurdles, as well as the leadership skills unique to women's success.

Personal Brand: Sharing Who You Are and Why You Do What You Do

What is the story of you, and why do you need to tell it well? In this talk Jill explores the 7 pillars of personal brand, and how to better articulate who you are and why your work matters.

What's Next? Career Planning Strategies Everyone Can Use

Do you ever wonder what else you could do professionally? Are you curious about where your skills and experiences may take you? You will walk away from this talk with a plan that connects your goals and aspirations to steps you can take immediately to grow in your role today and leave a legacy for the future.

Discover Your Strengths

This talk is designed to help you start identifying and leveraging your unique strengths so you can make your greatest contribution at work. Attendees leave Jill's talk with a greater understanding of individual and team strengths, and how to maximize them for greater impact.

Clients Include

Work with Jill

jill@leadershiprefinery.com

Jill Hauwiler

TESTIMONIALS

“When I was new in my role, I needed a facilitator who could ensure the leadership team got strategic work done, stayed focused, and had some fun— a step towards an aligned team, with a set of shared commitments for the coming year. You provided a foundation for the team to work together on specific initiatives that we determined were priorities while also assisting the team to work more effectively cross functionally.

CIO, M A Mortenson Company

“Thank you for sharing all your knowledge and resources with us and helping us kick off our conference. This is a big event for the team and we were grateful to have your help to make it so meaningful and relevant to all.

VP, HR United Healthcare

“You are professional, knowledgeable, business-focused, and able to connect with a diverse audience (from C suite to new leaders). You have an ability to translate vision into project plans and learning outcomes. After working with you, we have a common framework and language aligned with our organization vision/mission/values.

HR Leader, Monteris Medical

“Thank you for being a speaker at our conference. You did a fantastic job. The subjects that you presented continued to be discussed and referenced for the entire conference. Your presentation was such a big hit, that people are asking to get copies of your presentation.

Systems Engineer, The Toro Company

About Jill

JILL HAUWILLER has been developing leaders for nearly 20 years. She is the founder, principal consultant, and lead executive coach at Leadership Refinery. She has coached hundreds of professionals around the globe in the areas of leadership effectiveness, emotional intelligence, career transition, building strong teams, and work-life integration. Jill is an energetic, optimistic, strengths-based coach and has a broad toolkit to leverage in helping her clients identify obstacles, work through challenges, articulately communicate value, and ultimately build confidence in making decisions and taking action. While Jill's specialty is assessing and coaching high potential and high performing leaders, she also speaks and facilitates strategic meetings for organizations and senior leadership teams. She is a sought after conference presenter at national and global events on leadership development, emotional intelligence, and career planning & transition. Jill continues to teach and provide executive coaching in business schools for graduate students and executive education programs.